

Ben Kientz

Ben's roles include most recently Pastor Steve in Heaven, zombie killer Dave in How To Dress For The End Of The World, and Mexican Joe in Jackknife County. He has also voiced characters for Federation News Network and Letters From The Front for Beyond Trek Productions Podcast, as well as, appeared in several tv and internet productions.

Ben's training is quite diversified as he's studied classic and method acting with Renee Raudman and more recently Gary Kasper. He studied improv at LA Connection Comedy Theater. His skills include motorcycle, horseback, and stunt fighting including sword play.

Ben is an artist outside of film and tv, known for his comic art and portraiture. He speaks German as a second language and is well traveled through Europe. When not in front of the camera, Ben devotes his time to missions and outreach both locally and in Africa. He was born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, but considers Los Angeles his home and is married to his amazing wife Stella.